

Juneau, Ketchikan, and Sitka

UAS STAFF COUNCIL RESOLUTION AY14-01 Approved December 9, 2013

TO: Carey Brown, UA Staff Alliance Chair

CC: John Pugh, Chancellor University of Alaska Southeast

DATE: 9 December 2013

RE: Employee Tuition Waiver Benefit

Promomber 12 2012 the UACCtoff Council annual the full will and the fill and the fi

2013 Resolution in Support of the

WHEREAS, the tuition waiver is an important benefit to employees that differentiates the university from other employers; and WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently	The state of the s
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, many public institutions provide tuition waivers for employees and almost half provide tuition waivers for dependents; and  WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently
WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and  WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. anv change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently		university
WHEREAS, the waiver is a mechanism for increasing the value and performance of its employees and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. any change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently		alf provide and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Policy 01.01.010; and  WHEREAS. anv change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it currently	WHEREAS, the waiver keeps us competitive with peer institutions; and and provided "continuing opportunities for training and development" as per Regents' Pol	nployees icy
	WHEREAS. anv change to the current Employee Education Benefit (tuition waiver) as it of	currently
	·
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	a w 1. + 1828s.
	,

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED That the UAA Classified Council request that, the University of Alaska, Board of Regents reject any changes to Regents' policy 04.06.010.
The mission of the University of Alaska Southeast is student learning enhanced by faculty scholarship, undergraduate
The mission of the University of Alaska Southeast is student learning enhanced by faculty scholarship, undergraduate